

Here is just enough to help

supplemented by brief you begin. Even better when instruction, conversation, Web resources, etc. See Side B.

Peer-to-Peer Learning Through Linked Courses

Graduate/Undergraduate

Mutually beneficial activities in a graduate course and a closely related undergraduate course. Grad students gain leadership, teaching, planning, and web skills. Undergrads gain writing practice and feedback, intro to grad education.

Using Blackboard Tools

- Create "Organization" and enroll everyone
- •Group Management to create student groups
- •Group File Exchange for writing and peer review
- •Blog Tool for discussions
- •Wiki Tool for Website assignment

Side A

Helpful Resources for First Steps

Sample Linked Assignment: Workforce Web Project

- Instructions for Graduates tlt.gs/GradInstr
- Instructions for Undergraduates tlt.gs/UndergradInstr
- Rubric for Undergraduates' Use tlt.gs/WorkforceRubric

Contact:

Tracy Nichols UNCG trnicho2@uncg.edu

tlt.gs/uncgpeertopeer

April, 2011

Use, Adapt, Improve, Share

Please take, adapt, print, duplicate enough of these paper bookmarks to give a few copies each to some colleagues. Editable, printable versions available at:

tlt.gs/BookmarkFlxmpls

A few rights reserved. See: tlt.gs/shareforward

The TLT Group, A Non-Profit Organization 301 270 8312 www.tltgroup.org

Side B